SITUATION IN CHINA.

It Has Reached an Extremely Critical and Dangerous State.

A Strong Imperial Edict Orders the Immediate Suppression of the Boxers-Intervention in Some Form Is Necessary.

Shanghai, June 7.-In consequence of the representations of Japan the landing of a large Russian force at Taku is alleged to have been stopped. It is believed here that should Russia persist in sending a preponderating military force to the front a collision with Japan will inevitably result.

Alarming reports are current here of the hurried completion of the mobilization of the Japanese fleet.

The Boxers and Chinese regular troops have fought a pitched battle near Pekin. Many were killed on both sides. There are no further partier lars.

Violent dissensions regarding the treatment of the Boxers are reported to exist between Generalissimo Quong Lu and Prince Ching Tun. The latter is following the dictates of the dowager empress, and is stoutly supporting the Boxers.

Hundreds of isolated missionaries are apparently being abandoned to the mercies of Chinese mobs.

The body of the missionary Norman, who was killed by the Boxers, has been recovered. It had been horribly mutilated.

London, June 7.—The Central News learns that the French, Japanese, American and Russian warships at Taku have landed more troops.

The situation in Chian continues to assume a most serious aspect. From reports it appears that the Boxers are closing in on Pekin, and that the lives, not only of Americans, but of all foreign residents, are in danger.

That actual warfare has broken out is certain. Adm. Kempff, who is in command of the Newark at Taku, cabled Tuesday to the secretary of the "Engagement has commenced. Have landed force of 50 more seamen, battalion of marines."

The full text of Rr. Adm. Kempff's message was not made public. It is understood on the very best authority that he has cabled Rr. Adm. Remey at Manila to send him more marines and another gunboat. Adm. Remey has full authority to take whatever action necessary in case of emergency and to act on his own discretion.

The gravest fears are felt, not only for the American missionaries who are left in the interior, but also for American and other foreign residents in Pekin. It seems certain that the Boxers are endeavoring to close in on the city, and that they are meeting with but weak resistance from the imperial forces. Should they capture the city it is not believed that the life of any foreigner would be spared.

The secretary of state Wednesday cabled to Minister Conger at Pekin to co-operate with Rr. Adm. Kempff, who is at Taku, to protect the American legation and American residents. Similar orders were sent at the same time by Secretary of the Navy Long to Rr. Adm. Kempff. He was assured that he would be supplied by whatever force might be necessary to handle the situation.

It is feared at the navy department that the force of marines on the Newark, now at Taku, may not be strong enough to repel an attack of the Boxers and Rr. Adm. Remey has been ordered to send more marines to the Chinese coast.

Pekin, June 7.—The situation is growing steadily worse. Events move with much rapidity, and affairs, owing to the excitement of the natives, are so critical that the foreign ministers hold frequent meetings. They feel the need of a free hand for energetic action, without perpetual reference to the home governments.

Sir Claude MacDonald, the British minister, is wiring for 75 more marines.

Native employes who have returned from Feng Tai say they left the Boxers openly drilling in the adjacent village. A strong imperial edict just issued censures the "cowardliness of the imperial troops" and orders the viceroy of Pe Chi Li and Gen. Jung Lu immediately to suppress the Boxers.

The foreign ministers discussed the meeting of a special audience of the empress dowager, but no decision was reached.

London, June 7 .- Affairs in China are gradually working up a crisis of the first magnitude. It is generally understood that intervention in some form is necessary.

A special from Shanghai says the members of the majority of the legations at Pekin, including the members of the British legation, are sending their families away. It is also said that several prominent Chinese residents are leaving the city.

The total damage done to the Chinese railroad by the Boxers is now estimated at $5,000,000

Tin Plate Works Closed.

Joliet, Ill., June 7 .- The Great Western tin plate works, employing 300 men and paying $5,000 wages weekly, closed down indefinitely. The trouble arose over the discharge of an Amalgamated association man.

FIGHTING THE FILIPINOS.

Two More Engagements Maye Re. cently Taken Place in the Philippines.

Manila, June 6 .- Maj. Johnson. with two companies of the 29th infantry and 25 men of the 18th infantry, sailed from Romblon to the neigls boring island of Tablas, where they disembarked simultaneously in four columns, converging upon a central point. The Americans encountered about 60 rebels, who retreated, and they captured 40, including all the officers, together with 10,000 rounds of ammunition and 24 rifles. Forty men of the 29th regiment, with a lieutenant, were left as a garrison, the others returning to Romblon.

Company E of the 35th regiment and Company G of the 4th regiment encountered 50 insurgents behind stone trenches in the high mountains near Norzagaray, province of Bulacan. There was persistent fighting, and several Americans were wounded. Finally Company G by a flanking movement carried the trenches. Trumpeter Speaker, of Company G. has been commended for "determined bravery" by Gen. Funston.

Troop G of the 4th cavalry, Company C of the 34th regiment and Company A of the 22d regiment are pursuing the captors of Charles D. Roberts, who was taken by the Filipinos while scouting near San Miguel de Mayumo, May 29. It is reported that the Filipinos have separated among the trackless forests.

Forty rifles, with artillery and a considerable quantity of ammunition, have been captured by the Americans in the mountains back of Dunaluaihan. Three Filipinos were also taken. American scouts have destroyed the camp of Gen. Mascardo.

The natives report that Mascardo, with 200 men and 500 rifles, will surrender if given assurances that they will not be imprisoned. While scouting in the vicinity of Santo Tomas, province of Neiva Ecija, two Americans were wounded.

An investigation into the cause of the burning of Candaba has been ordered. It is alleged to have been done by drunken sailors.

Several local commercial houses rethat the Filipino crews of their coastwise steamers intended to kill the white officials whenever a favorable opportunity arose. Consequently the steamers are now running with armed European guards.

The members of the civil commission are now selecting offices and places of residence.

WAR IN NORTH AFRICA.

Thousands of Moors Are Massing at Figuig, Preparatory to an Attack on the French.

London, June 6 .- Special dispatches received from Algiers portray a serious situation. Thousands of Moors are massing at Figuig and in the neighborhood, preparing for a determined attack upon the advance posts of the French.

The French columns have joined hands at Zoubia, but the men suffer terribly from heat and thirst, and aundreds of camels died.

The French are preparing entrenchments and are confident of their ability to repel an attack and even to take the offensive against Figuig, if neces-

It Floats Over the Public Buildings in Pretoria.

Part of the Boer Forces Have Gone Westward to Meet Baden-Powell and to Make a Show of Holding the Country.

London, June 7 .-- Lord Roberts telegraphed to the war office as follows: 'Pretoria, June 5.-The occupation of the town passed off most satisfactorily and the British flag is now hoisted on top of the government buildings. The troops met with a much more enthusiastic reception than I anticipated. The 3d battalion of the Grenadier Guards lined the square when the march past took "Cwing to their having been on duty at some distance around town, ery few cavairy and infantry were able to take part in the ceremony. "Several of our officers, who had been prisoners, were among the oalookers. London, June 7 .-- A special dispatch from Lourenzo Marques, dated Tuesday, June 5, says:

"Gen. Buller and Christian Botha met at Laings Nek at Buller's request, when a three days' armistice was agreed upon." The dispatch adds that the British have evacuated Utrecht. London, June 7 .- Military operations in South Africa are apparently at a standstill. For a day or two the tired troops of Lord Roberts are resting, and he is filling the magazines and warehouses at his new base, Pretoria, preparatory to a long chase after the retiring Boers in the direction of Lydenburg. His cavalry are probably seeking to intercept Commandant Gen. Botha.

Some dispatches are to hand which left Pretoria Monday while the fighting was going on outside the city. They come by way of Lourenco Marques. One of them says: "Toward the end of the day, when the British naval guns were shelling the southcently received anonymous warnings ern forts, a number of projectiles burst, damaging the suburbs. All day armed burghers have been leaving Pretoria, going east. The greater part of the railway rolling stock has been removed.

"Gen. Botha was fighting an essentially rear guard action, his object being not to defend Pretoria, but to delay Lord Roberts until the railway switch had been cleared and the main part of the Boer army had started to withdraw. The British advance appears to have left open to the Boers the best line of retreat along the railway." The Boers used both heavy and light artillery at Pretoria. What is supposed to have been the last train out of Pretoria arrived at Lourenco Marques Sunday evening. The passengers included a number of foreign volunteers who were leaving the Boers, and also the wives and children of Hollanders. They described road agreed to ship the monument Pretoria as destitute of food and clothing. What the Boer officials could not take the natives and townspeople did.

Probably the most important Boer army is at Laing's Nek, where both sides are passive. Gen. Rundle and Gen. Brabant have withdrawn a little southward.

Gen. Baden-Powell has extended martial law to the Marico and North Lichtenberg districts. Shots were exchanged between Boer and British patrols 18 miles east of Mafeking on May 28. Part of the forces lately at Pretoria are reported to have gone westward to meet Baden-Powell and to make a show of holding the country through which he and Gen.

WHEELER TO BE RETIRED.

It Will Cause a Vacancy in the Grade of Brigadier Generals for an Army Officer.

Washington, June 7 .- It is said at the war department that Gen. Wheeler will be given no military assignment under his commission as brigadier general of regulars, but that he will be placed on the retired list for age within the next few days. This plan of action, it is said, is in accordance with an understanding reached between the president and Gen. Wheeler.

The retirement of Gen. Wheeler will create a vacancy in the grade of of life and property. brigadier general, which will be permanently filled by the appointment of one of the officers of the army who particularly distinguished himself in action in Cuba, Porto Rico or the Philippines. Gens. Davis, Chaffee, Hughes, Wheaton, Bates and Schwan, all of whom have rendered conspicuous service, are mentioned for preferment. They are all colonels in the regular army and brigadier generals of volunteers. There is an impression that Gen. Davis, military governor of Porto Rico, stands the best chance of securing the star.

PREPARING FOR A VOYAGE.

The Battleships Massachusetts and the Indiana to Be Sent Out on a Secret Mission.

Philadelphia, June 7.—Under orders from the navy department the battlehips Massachusetts and Indiana, at the League Island navy yards, are being prepared for sea. The orders give no clew as to what service the vessels may be called into, the notice to Commandant Casey being simply to get the ships ready and dispatch them as soon as possible to Hampton roads, where they are to await further orders.

The warships were Wednesday morning piloted out of the reserve basin around to the Delaware river front, where preparations for depart- Edwards, of the strikers' grievance ure were finished. Both vessels were committee, said that nothing will be practically ready to go to sea when orders came, having been thoroughly the differences in dispute until Mr. overhauled at the Brooklyn navy yard before their arrival here.

Prominent St. Louis Citizens Make an Appeal to Gov. Stevens.

Assaults on Inoffensive Passengers Continue, and Several Persons Were Brutany Beaten-Farmer Taken for an Employe.

St. Louis, June 5.-The citizen nembers of the posse comitatus had their first experience with active service Monday, when several companies were armed and assigned for guard duty at the Park avenue, Eastern avenue and Southern electric power houses of the Transit company. While on guard duty the mempers of the sheriff's posse will be subject to strict military discipline. All but two or three of the divisions of the Transit company's system are operating cars Monday. The interference with passengers in some sections of the city by strike sympathizers is becoming serious. Passengers alighting from cars along South Broadway have been repeatedly assaulted with sticks, stones and fists. Several women have been brutally beaten and their clothing almost torn off. In every instance the police have rescued the victims.

St. Louis, June 5 .- Theodore Mc-Corner, of Milwaukee, employed by the Transit Co. as line repairer, was shot while repairing wires. Wound not serious.

Last night the accidental discharge of a gun in the hands of John A. Gernez, a member of the posse comitatus on guard at the power house of the Transit Co. at Broadway and Gasconde streets, Wade Sargent, a nonunion man, was shot ... the ankle. His condition is serious and amputation will have to be resorted to. Sargent's home is in Medina, O.

St. Louis, June 6.-The strike assumed such a serious phase that 50 prominent citizens united in a telegram to Gov. Stevens asking him to call out the militia for the protection Negotiations between the strikers and the St. Louis Transit Co. looking to a settlement of the strike are off for the present, and probably will not be resumed until the strikers agree not to demand the discharge of the men now in the employ of the company, in order that they may regain the positions they gave up when the strike was declared. Attorney Lehmann, for the Transit Co., stated plainly that every man now in the service of the company must be retained in the place assigned him, and until this is assented to by the strikers negotiations as to other matters are useless.

From a rioting standpoint the day was practically uneventful. Assaults on inoffensive passengers continue. Wm. A. Sanders and Wm. Deneke were brutally beaten by a crowd because they rode on a Transit Co. car. John Krenhall, a farmer, was taken to the city hospital suffering from number of severe scalp wounds and internal injuries. Krenhall's story leads to the belief that the assault upon him was committed by strike sympathizers who imagined him an employe of the Transit Co.

St. Louis, June 7.-On account of the absence from the city of ex-Gov. Stone, attorney for the striking employes, negotiations with the company looking to a settlement of the strike were not resumed. Chairman done toward effecting a settlement of Stone returns.

Thirty-one affidavits in support of the application for a permanent federal injunction, restraining strikers and others from interfering with the supplies of ammunition. There are running of mail cars in the city of St. 120 men in the reserve crew of each Louis, were filed with the clerk of the United States circuit court.

TRADE WITH PORTO RICO.

Total Value of Merchandise Imported Into the Island in Seven Months Was $6,219,119.

Washington, June 7 .- The war department Wednesday made public a summary of the regular bulletin of the division of customs and insular affairs concerning the trade of Porto Rico for the seven months ended January 31, 1900. The total value of merchandise imported into the island during this period was $6,219,119. Merchandise to the value of $1,731,- Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. NEELY'S STEALINGS

Mr. Bristow Says it Will Amount to Nearly $100,000.

This Does Not Include the Surcharge Statement, Which is $411,000-Each Day's Examination But Adds to the Surprises.

New York, June 4.-In an interview Sunday Gov. Roosevelt said; "Charles F. W. Neely, who is zharged with embezzling the postal funds in Cuba, will now probably be sent back there for trial.'

Then Roosevelt announced that he had signed extradition papers in the Neely case, and that they were immediately dispatched to the United States attorney general and are probably now in the hands of the proper authorities.

Pests Bristow inquired as to the amount of postal funds taken by C. F. W. reely in May, 1899, and ascertained that it was $31,312.95. Neely's monthly average was about $17,000. His system of bookkeeping was simplicity itself. Apparently he merely divided the amounts received, taking one-half himself and accounting for the other.

The examination of Estes G. Rathbone, former director of posts, was continued. It lasted more than four ho ars. The most startling fact developed was that on May 26 of last year Mr. Rathbone ordered Special Agents Leatherer and Sullivan to examine the accounts. They found a shortage but it was not thought that anything had gone wrong. They reported, however, that there was no check upon the bureau of finance, and they recommended that certain blank forms be made which would answer the purpose, such as all postmasters use when making their reports to the department monthly. Mr. Maynard, then chief agent, indorsed the recommendation and forwarded it to Mr. Rathbone. The latter approved it and sent it to Auditor Reeves, who initialed and forwarded it to Neely. After he had initialed it, instead of putting the scheme into operation, he quietly pigeon-holed it, and it did not see the light until May 15 of this year, when the plan was put into effect.

Mr. Bristow says he is almost sure that the extent of the steal will amount to something between $80,000 and $100,000, but that this will not touch the item of surcharge statements, which is $411,000. As to how many of these were burned and how many sold it is impossible to obtain definite information. As many have been traced, it is known positively that all were not destroyed, but if Neely sold say $50,000 or $100,000 worth, it would not be surprising, Mr. Bristow thinks, to find them scattered all over the world.

The postal inspectors say it is asthe surprises.

Lieut. Col. Burton, Mr. Jones, the acre. special prosecutor, and Mr. Stevens left last night for the United States. Lieut. Col. Burton expects to return here in about ten days.

Hopes are expressed by some of the local papers that, as Gov. Roosevelt has signed the extradition order, no further time will be wasted in bringing Neely to trial. These journals best way for the Americans to re- of the charge that local hotelkeepers deem themselves is to bring him to prompt trial."

Reeves Arrested.

Havana, June 3 .- A warrant was issued for the arrest of former Deputy Auditor W. H. Reeves, who was lodged in jail, his bail being fixed at $1,500. It is now believed that Reeves in his so-called "confession" only gave half the truth. Indeed, the delay in placing him behind the bars was largely due to the desire of the officials to obtain the remainder of his information regarding Neely's evolutions.

A very important feature relates to an allegation that Neely gave another man $15,000. This, if true, can only be established in the United States, and an inspector will leave Havana zhortly to investigate. Reeves asserts that heavy mortgages were lifted from the property of the accused man by funds that could not have been obtained in any other way than through Neely.

DEATH FROM THE PLAGUE.

A Chinaman in San Francisco Succumbs After One Day's Illness-A Strict Quarantine.

San Francisco, June 5.-Health Officer O'Brien and Bacteriologist Kellogg have reported that the case of a Chinese who died on Saturday after one day's illness was undoubtedly one of the bubonic plague. At the time of the autopsy the body was already beginning to turn black. Certain glands had been removed from the body, it is said, by physicians engaged by the Chinese. The health officer has been instructed to quarantine the persons and laboratories of these doctors. Temporary quarters will be established on Angel sland sufficiently large to accommodate 5,000 Chinese. The street cars through Chinatown is to be stopped and all permits to pass through the quarantine lines are to be revoked. Brought Asnore By a Steamer Furnished By Gen. Shafter-Not a Military Reception.

San Francisco, June 5.—After five days in quarantine at Angel island, Maj. Gen. E. S. Otis, who arrived last Wednesday from Manila, was allowed to land. Several cases of smallpox on board the transport Meade were the cause of the quarantine, and Gen. Otis and all on board had to submit to vaccination.

Gen. Otis was brought over from Angel island on a special steamer furnished by Gen. Shafter, who went to meet the returning general, accompanied by Surgeon Maj. Arthur and Capt. Wilson. The party was driven to the Occidental hotel, where Gen. Otis spent some time in receiving callers and preparing for his departure east. It had been decided to receive Gen. Otis here with full military honors, but for some reason this ceremony was omitted.

LAND FOR SETTLERS.

About Two Million Four Hundred Thousand Acres Will Soon Be Thrown Open.

Washington, June 5 .- A conference agreement was reached on a bill which will open to settlement about 2,400,000 acres of public land. Senater Shoup, of Idaho, originally proposed the bill, opening to settlement the old Ft. Hall (Idaho) military reservation, containing about 400,000 acres. Delegate Flynn in the house secured an amendment similarly opening a tract of about 2,000,000 acres of the Kiowa and Commanche lands in Southwest Oklahoma.

The conference has covered many weeks and has been very stubborn, 2:40 in the morning. but as agreed upon the lands will be opened as stated. FIFTY-SIXTH CONGRESS.

Summary of Leading Events.

Washington, June 1 .- Senate-The military academy appropriation bill was passed. It carries amendments making Gen. Miles and all of the future commanders of the army lieutenant generals and Gen. Corbin a major general. Consideration of the last of the appropriation bills, the general deficiency, was begun, but was not completed.

House—The joint resolution pro-posing a constitutional amendment empowering congress to regulate trusts was defeated. It requires a two-thirds vote under the constitution to adopt an amendment to the constitution. The vote stood ayes 154, nays 131. The bills to ratify the treaties made by the Dawes commission with the Cherokee and Creek Indians were passed.

Washington, June 2.-Senate-The last of the appropriation bills, the general deficiency, was passed, as was also the emergency river and harbor bill, providing for numerous surveys and for certain other public works, and the bill providing for the extradition of persons who have committed certain crimes in Cuba from the United States to the island. The bill provides that the alleged criminal shall be punished under the laws of Cuba as administered by Cuban courts.

House-The Littlefield trust bill was amended by the democrats so as to except from the provisions of the bill all labor organizations and unions, and then the measure was passed, only one vote being cast against it.

Washington, June 4.-Senate-The senate was in session more than ten hours, nearly four hours of which were spent in executive session. The only features of the session was the speech on the Philippine question by Mr. Teiler (Col.) and the effort by Mr. Pettigrew (S. D.) to obtain consideration for the anti-trust bill passed by the house last Saturday. The remainder of the session was consumed in the consideration of conference reports and in the passage of minor measures on the calendar. House--The senate amendment to the sundry civil appropriation bill appropriating $5,000,000 for the Louisi ana purchase exposition at St. Louis in 1903 was agreed to; also the disputed items in the District of Columbia bill, and the bill went to the president, leaving only four appropriation bills still in dispute between the two houses. Everything so far as the house is concerned indicates final adjournment on Wednesday.

Washington, June 5 .- Senate-Most of the day was given to conference reports and odds and ends of business, preparatory to final adjournment. A night session was held which lasted until 3:30 in the morning. Conference reports were acted upon and a number of private bills were passed. All the presidential nominations were confirmed except that of W. D. Bynum as general appraiser at the port of New York and Wm. Haywood to be collector of customs for the district of Hawaii.

House--The entire time of the house was taken up in conference reports on the unpassed appropriation bills and private measures. A night session was held which lasted until Washington, June 6.-Senate-Inaof the house resolution for final adjournment. The armor plate question was the one which caused the delay. The senate will remain in session until a settlement is finally reached.

House-The entire session was taken up in an endeavor to reach a settlement on the armor plate clause in the naval appropriation bill. new adjournment resolution will now have to be adopted.

The Sherman family returned from Washington May 25, to spend the summer here, in hope that the change of climate and the restful manner of their lives might be of benefit to both. While Mr. and Mrs. Sherman were sitting on the piazza of their home Sunday afternoon, chatting with visitors, Mrs. Sherman sustained the shock which caused her death.

The remains were buried here Thursday morning at 10:30 o'clock. She expressed a desire a short time ago to be buried here if she died here. Her body will be laid at rest beside 2,000 and 2,500 car repairers, yardmen that of her father, the late Judge Stewart. Telegrams of condolence to the family are numerous.

The District Convention.

The Democratic District Convention to be held in this city on July 10th will be the first held in Paris with the memory of the present generation. The honor of securing it for Paris belongs to that rising young lawyer and politician, T. E. Moore, Jr., who was untiring in his efforts to bring the convention to Paris. Mr. Moore was recently elected Chairman of the Bourbon County Democratic Committee to succeed his father, Capt. T. E. Moore of Shawhan.

The shot told on Evelyn. In the presence of her father, she dreaded the disclosure that Winkle, in his anger, might make with regard to her intimacy with Ronald; but the old gentleman paid no heed to their innuendoes.

"He certainly is foolhardy," he joined in; "but to save me I can but admire the fellow's courage. Why," the colonel snapped his fat fingers, "if he keeps that sort of thing up, or tries to interfere when the man is caught, I wouldn't give a pinch of snuff for his life. Some chap like Syd Hart would draw a bead on him, and be proud of it till the end of his days."

Then Mrs. Lancaster came and put her arms round Evelyn's waist.

"Don't act hastily, my dear," was her whispered warning; and she drew the girl to the other end of the veranda. Evelyn caught both his hands in the wind with the work of the wo "Don't you see what he wants?" she asked; "he is trying to rouse your father's suspicions

About five o'clock the occasional shouts in the swamp grew louder and nearer, and into them was suddenly blended the ominous baying of dogs. "The hounds!" announced the colonel, tragically. "And they are out for business," gleefully added the captain; "they are headed this way.' Evelyn and Mrs. Lancaster stood leaning against the balustrade, their faces towards the swamp. "Come inside, dear," said the latter. "It will do no good to witness it."

But our young lady only shook her

After a few minutes the shouting and baying of the hounds died-down. The colonel gave it as his opinion that they were off the track, but that it was only a question of time before they would catch the scent again.

Two hours passed. The sun sank behind the distant mountain peaks. The sky beyond was as red as blood. The wisps of clouds lying against the mountain-sides looked like glaciers. The landscape took on a delicate veil of gray. Objects in the distance began to assume vague shapes. The dark outlines of the swamp were fast merging into the night. "They have been taking a zig-zag course," proclaimed Hasbrooke from his end of the veranda. "The rascal will be as limber as a rag when he is treed. There are no two ways about it; it's all up with him; the darkness will not be in his favor; nothing but blood will satisfy the fury of that mob." "Do you mean that the sheriff will not be able to control them?" queried Mrs. Lancaster, who had begun to walk about nervously.

"He'd have to have a lot of backbone to even try it," answered her host. "He'd be knocked out like a straw in a hurricane; murderers of old women stand no chance with these crude Anglo-Saxons."

It had grown dark, save for the light of the moon, which had just risen and loomed up like a huge conflagration beyoud the tree-tops. For yet half an hour only an intermittent shout or the sudden outburst of barking was heard from the swamp, but each time the flamesounds were nearer. Old Ephraim, as if anticipating his master's desires, drove round the horses and trap. "A good idea," approved the colonel; "gentlemen, we might as well get nearer. I think I know where they will come out." "By all means!" cried the captain. with enthusiasm. He was the first to get a seat in the vehicle, and was fol-

"I pray God that he may not be harmed." Her tone was almost a prayer in itself.

The baying and shouting were now very near. Half a mile away torchlights like fireflies began to flit along the swamp. The line of men was now in the open. They seemed to be headed in one direction, and it was not many minutes before all the lights had run together. Evelyn knew that the prisoner was in the center of that cluster of torches. The shouting had died down to a far-off murmur. Then into the yellow, smoky glare the two observers saw a white horse rearing and plunging. Presently the frightened animal seemed under the control of its rider, and a loud, ringing voice like that of an father. experienced open-air speaker, broke the stillness.

"It is he!" gasped Evelyn, and her eyes seemed set in their sockets as she peered through the gloom. "God have mercy on him!"

Mrs. Lancaster's arm tightened round the girl's waist, but her voice lay dead in her throat. Evelyn. "Oh, if-if he is dead-"

Evelyn's voice broke. They were both silent for a few minutes and then light-when the sky in the east was it seemed to be my husband who was they saw the torches going out one by one. The people were going home. There could be no doubt now. Something had happened. Ronald's voice was heard no more; could it be stilled forever? Then they heard the trap returning. The two women advanced to the steps as the horses were reined in at the door. The occupants alighted. As her father ascended the steps Evelyn caught both his hands in hers. The old soldier laughed.

'Do?" he exclaimed, enthusiastical ly, as he rubbed his hands together. "why, they did nothing. Jade Fanshaw's son rode into their ranks and made the grandest speech I ever listened to in my life. CHAPTER IX.

The guests and family at Carnleigh usually came down to breakfast irregularly, but this morning by eight o'clock they were all at the table, including Evelyn. The colonel, who had been out for an early business walk with one of his overseers, was the last to sit down. And as he took his place at the head of the table he had the air of a man blood on his hands and shirt, and he anxious to be questioned. He had

"I am sorry it was Ronald Fanshaw who is to get all the credit," remarked Caroline Hasbrooke, coldly. "Since he has taken up the study of law it looks as if he has a pretty good idea of his importance. Things are coming to a pretty pass when such people as the Fanshaws get into the professions usually held by gentlemen."

"Don't kick against the pricks" (it was a favorite expression of her father's), "the common people have been rising into prominence since the birth of creation.

"And the better class has been degenerating," remarked Mr. Hardy, with a slow smile. "As far as I am concerned. I'd rather employ a man like Fanshaw to defend me, if I were on trial for my life, than some man with more ancestry and less individual force."

"Bravo! bien dit," applauded Mrs. Lancaster, and she rose to accompany Evelyn out on the lawn.

The dew lay as heavy as raindrops on the grass and hung like scintillating gems from the gorgeous hollyhocks, the Indian chieftains, and the roses flared like billows of red on the silvery green sward of the sloping terraces. Mrs.

Lancaster was first to break the silence. "I need not tell you I'm glad that boy was innocent," she began. "I am especially glad because it emphasizes the nobility of Mr. Fanshaw's act. I am going to drive over to his house in the pony cart this morning. I have something to say to him."

Evelyn raised her great eyes in astonishment, but she uttered no comment. Mrs. Lancaster's voice shook perceptibly as she went on: "Nothing has ever affected me no pewerfully as all this has. Last night the impassioned fervor of his voice while he was speaking down there brought back some of the tenderest and saddest recollections of my young married life. It reminded me of a speech in favor of secession that my husband made, just before the war broke out. There seemed to be a ring in Mr. Fanshaw's tones like my my imagination, and the great diswith the old pain. And last night in thinking of Mr. Fanshaw's danger in peril. Really, I did not sleep a wink. I went to the window a hundred times. I saw Mr. Fanshaw returning this morning, and then I drew. my first easy breath. Oh, Evelyn!" (Mrs. Lancaster was gazing into the girl's eyes) "what is the matter with both of us?"

Evelyn shook her head; her rich, abundant hair glistening like threads of burnished gold in the sun.

"I know what's the matter with me," she said, with a little laugh. "I hope omething else is wrong with you. Mrs. Lancaster sighed. "When I get back from his house I may tell you what I am going for, but I shall not now-no, I shall not now." [To Be Continued.]

An Incomplete Education.

Ignorance, even dense ignorance, is often to be met with in this country of public schools, but it is seldom that of a world beyond his potato-patch or logging-camp. Among the European peasantry, however, education is often absolutely unknown. Sad to say, a a French conscript recently taken regiment is not unique, although it may sound so.

"Come!" said the adjutant. "You are a Frenchman-a soldier; do you know why you are here instead of working in the fields? I ask you why you are here-a soldier. You give no answer.

"No, my adjutant." "You have never heard of the Ger mans? What is Germany?"

"I don't know." "Are you a Frenchman or a Ger man?"

"I don't know." "This is wonderful! Where were you born?"

"At Vaucouleurs, my adjutant." "At Vaucouleurs, and not a patriot! Did no one ever tell you of the invasion?

VERY DRUNK ON COFFEE.

A Brazilian's Peculiar Way of Preparing and Using the Beverage That Upset Him.

The man was arrested as a "drunk." yet the captain hesitated. "Smell his breath," he said to the officer who brought him in. The officer did so, relates the Boston Record, and admitted that he could detect no trace of liquor. As the officer is an abstainer, his testimony was competent. "He acts drunk, and he is drunk or sick, I don't know which," said the lng the passage of such a measure is captain, as the man lurched forward not at all improbable, as its memberagainst the rail.

on Washington street."

"Give him a cold water shampoo, and I'll see if the doctor can come

The doctor was out, and the captain went downstairs himself to see how the non-alcoholic drunk was getting along. The officers had stripped him to the waist and were giving him cold water in such quantities that he was sputtering and blowing and howling for all he was worth. Aromatic spirits of ammonia was poured into him, and the process was continued until he began to yell for mercy. A foreigner, speaking English imperfectly, his condition heightened the difficulty in understanding him. But if he told the truth he is the most peculiar drunkard that ever came to the attention of Boston police.

He says he never drinks anything but coffee and acquired the inebriety he was blessed with when taken to the station house solely by libations of the cup that is considered so harmless. His name is John Canavenez, and his birthplace Brazil. The Brazilians, he says, drink coffee from infancy, the strongest and blackest. The habit has grown upon him to such an extent that he sometimes drinks 40 small cups a day and of a strength each cup equal to about a quart of the beverage we know. He prepares the cones ... mself. Mesting some of the green berry, he steeps it and steeps separately a quantity of the burnt berry. Combining the two until be has boiled all the essential part out, he has almost a syrup. Putting in fresh coffee and cooking this with it he has a bitter drink that would make an American gasp, and a cupful would nauseate a novice. He consumes about a pound of coffee a day, and if deprived of the beverage his nerves are gone completely. He was two weeks in a hospital in New York last winter and nearly died for lack of his narcotic drink.

It is not, like alcohol, a stimulant, but more like opium in its effect, although it produces a result unlike ether or rather like a combination of both. He attributed his condition the other day to the fact that his stomach had been upset, and he had eaten nothing practically for two days, and his tipple took hold of him more than ordinarily it would. He says that only once or twice has he got in this condition, and that generally he only feels calm and happy. He originated his way of preparing the beverage and never knew of anyone else who used the same method. The captain concluded to let the Brazilian go.

"He could hardly be called a drunk," he remarked, "but he is a new one on me, and I hope he won't teach any Boston people to use his Brazilian cofdee dope. We've got vices enough CATTLE-First qual. 4 25 @ 5 50 HOGS--Western 5 70 @ 5 80 without new ones being imported."

BUSINESS DEAD IN DAWSON.

Great Part of the Fopulation of the Alaskan City Prepares to Go to Nome.

Private advices from Dawson City dated April 15 report a great lack of business activity. The Sunday clos-ing act, together with unfavorable weather, have nearly killed business. The temperature was then 60 degrees above zero and the weather had been nearly as warm for three weeks, making it next to impossible to use trails to the mines. A heavy rain on April 10 left the country bare of snow and in consequence everything now has to be hauled on wagons, which are few in number. One last week sold for $1,000, but the ruling price is $600. Within the last ten weeks 500 horses have reached Dawson, all drawing heavily-loaded sleighs of everything imaginable. Teams that sold for $800 a short while back can now be purchased there cheaper than in the states. Fresh eggs, which were three dollars a dozen, will not bring half of that price. Bicycles, which formerly sold at from $150 to $300 apiece, can hardly be given away, there being no trails to ride on.

There is an abundance of idle labor in Dawson, as the men have just stopped digging and have not begun to sluice. Two-thirds of the population will probably go down the river to Nome as soon as navigation opens. Steamers with a capacity of 2,000 passengers are tied up there and the transportation is already sold out. The clean-up in Dawson will be large

IT MADE A DIFFERENCE.

One Instance in Which Society and Dramatic Critics Did Not Agree.

From the Daily Grind, May 8, 1899, related by the Indianapolis Press: "Miss Violet Florida Waters, in the amateur performance by the Histrion club of 'Camille' last night displayed an ability and a marvel-last night displayed an ability and a marvelous command of stage technique that many a professional might envy. It is safe to predict for this gifted youpng lady that if she ever choose to adopt the stage as a career her name will become one of the famous ones in dramatic history."

From the Daily Grind, May 12, 1900: "The Plugalong repertoire company opened at the opera house last night in 'Camille.' Seldom has the dear old chestnut been so badly done—the worst offender being Violet Florida Waters, who punched holes in the title role and frazzled its edges in a manner that plainly showed her to need years and years of training before she will be fit to be anything better than a back row ornament anything better than a back row ornament in an amateur show—let alone scale the proud heights of the drama at ten-twent-thirt. Miss Waters is a frost."

Too Frank.

A clothing merchant in lower Broadway had a big lot of clothes that he had bought at a bargain, and by putting a price of $15 on each he thought they would sell rapidly, on each he thought they would sell rapidly, for they were of exceptionally good value for that money. He put one of the suits on a form and set it in front of his store with a sign about its neck which one of his smart clerks had painted on a picce of cardboard. This announced the price. Then he and his clerks prepared to do a rushing business. The hours passed and no one came in to buy the suits. This caused the merchant to wonder, and at length he determined to go out and take a look at the sample suit and sign. This is what he found on the sign: "These and take a look at the sample suit and sign. This is what he found on the sign: "These suits $15. They won't last long." Pedestrians passing by saw the sign and smiled at its frankness. The merchant tore down the sign from the suit, and the clerk who had designed it started out to look for another job.—N. Y. Herald.

A Resourceful Phrase.

A kind-hearted clergyman was lately com-pelled to dismiss a clever gardener, who used to purloin his fruit and vegetables. For the sake of his wife and family he gave him a character and this is how he worded it: "I hereby certify that A. B. has been my gardener for over two years, and that during that time he got more out of my garden than any man I ever employed."—Collier's Weekly.

Electricity in Capsules.

This new compound, which is made from cheap chemicals, is put up in capsule form and when added to a certain quantity of water will furnish electricity enough to light a house, drive an automobile or even a railroad train. Time was when Cancer was considered as incurable as leprosy

Physicians and friends could give little relief or encouragement to one afflicted with this terrible disease. Even now doctors know of no remedy for this fearful malady; while admitting it to be a blood disease, they still insist that there is no hope outside of a surgical operation, and advise you to have the Cancer cut out, its place, for the disease is in the blood—is deep-seated and destructive, and beyond the reach of the surgeon's knife or matter before the Cancer sore will heal.

s. S. S. is the only medicine that can overcome this powerful and contaminating poison and force it out of the blood. It builds up and invigorates the old, and supplies new, rich, life-giving blood. S. S. S. is a purely vegetable remedy; no mineral can be found in it; the roots and herbs from which it is made contain powerful purifying properties that act directly upon the blood system and make a safe and permanent cure of Cancer. It has cured thousands, why not you? Cancer is not always inherited; your family may be free from any taint, yet your blood may become so polluted that a severe

If you have an obstinate sore, don't rely upon salves or ointments to cure it—begin with S. S. S. at once; it will cleanse your blood and prevent the formation of cancerous cells.

Mrs. R. Shirer, La Plata, Mo., writes: "A small pimple came on my jaw about one inch below the ear on the left side of my face. At first it gave me no trouble, ? 'd I did not think it was anything serious eat into the flesh and gave me intense pain. I tried everything I could hear of, but nothing did me any good. I then began the use of S. S.
